

Bylaws

Cornell University Student Assembly

As amended on December 11, 2020

ARTICLE I: EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS

Section 1: Ex-officio Membership

Ex-officio membership grants members of the Cornell community (student, alumni, faculty, staff, administrator, etc.) full-debating privileges but not voting privileges. These positions are granted to community members to either provide a perspective from another governing body or to enhance the overall operations of the Student Assembly.

Section 2: Ex-Officio Executive Committee Positions

- A. The SA can grant an ex-officio position to any member of the Cornell community to serve as the Executive Archivist.
- B. The SA can grant an ex-officio position to any member of the Cornell community to serve as the Parliamentarian.
- C. The SA can grant an ex-officio position to any member of the Cornell Community to serve as Director of Elections.
- D. The SA can grant an ex-officio position to any member of the Cornell Community to serve as the Student Advocate.
- E. The SA can grant an ex-officio position to any member of the Cornell Community to serve as the Director of Student Government Relations.

Section 3: Organizational Liaisons

- A. The SA shall grant one member chosen by the Greek Tri-Councils an ex-officio position as an organizational liaison. The liaison chosen by the Tri-Councils shall be selected on a rotating basis from the three councils, beginning with a representative of InterFraternity Council, following with Panhellenic Association, and finishing with Multicultural Greek and Fraternal Council. Each liaison will serve for one semester, and a liaison from the next council in the rotation will be granted membership at the beginning of the following semester.
- B. The SA will grant one executive member from Residential Student Congress an ex-officio position as an organizational liaison.
- C. The SA will grant one member from Cornell Undergraduate Veteran Association an ex-officio position as an organizational liaison. This liaison must represent the interests of the United States and its allies.

Cornell University Student Assembly

- 31 D. The SA will grant one organizational liaison from the Cornell Union for Disability Awareness an ex-32 officio position titled “Student with Disabilities Representative”.
- 33 E. The SA will grant one liaison, an undergraduate with an interest in computing and technology an ex-34 officio position as titled IT Governance Liaison.

35 Section 4: Shared Governance Liaisons

37 liaisons for the duration of their terms.
- 38 B. Undergraduate University Assembly Members. The SA will grant both student-elected University 39 Assembly members ex-officio positions for the duration of their terms.

40 ARTICLE II: OFFICERS

41 Section 1: Officers

42 The officers of the SA shall be a President, an Executive Vice President, a Vice President of Internal Operations, a 43 Vice President for Finance, a Vice President of External Affairs, a Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion, a 44 Director of Elections, a Parliamentarian, and an Executive Archivist. These officers shall perform the duties 45 prescribed by this Charter and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the SA.

46 Section 2: Election and Appointment of Officers, Time of Election/Appointment

47 The SA will, as soon as possible after the spring election, hold an organizational and planning meeting in executive 48 session. At this meeting, the voting members will elect from among themselves the offices of Vice President of 49 Internal Operations, Vice President for Finance, a Vice President of External Affairs, a Vice President of Diversity
50 and Inclusion. At this meeting or a meeting soon after, the voting members will elect from the Cornell community 51 (student, employee, faculty, alumnus living in Ithaca) the office of Director of Elections. Self-nomination will be in 52 order in each of the elected offices. Elected officers should be approved by a majority vote of SA members present at 53 organizational meeting. Additionally, at this meeting or a meeting soon after the members will affirm the 54 appointments of Parliamentarian and Executive Archivist. The offices of Parliamentarian and Executive Archivist will 55 be appointed by the SA President. Each nominee for the respective offices shall be subject to majority approval of the 56 SA voting members. The newly elected officers will undertake the responsibilities of their position at the start of their 57 term on the SA. Elections for officers shall be by secret ballots. SA voting members may have one vote for each 58 position to be filled but may not vote for any one individual twice on any ballot.

59 Section 3: Terms of office

60 Officers shall serve for a term of one year or until their successor is elected and is administered the oath of office.
61 Following the next regular or special Student Assembly elections.

210 with Assembly members, or others, bring before the Executive Board.

211 Section 10: Offices of Officers

- 212 A. Each Office is permitted to develop its own recruitment process. Relevant materials including, but not limited 213 to, application forms, candidate lists, recruitment methodology, and a list of the selected office members shall 214 be submitted to the Office of the Assemblies after the recruitment process has been completed.
215 a. Members of the office are not allowed to be ex-officio officers or voting members of the SA.
216 b. Each roster will be approved by majority vote by the Student Assembly.

217 ARTICLE IV: MEETINGS

218 Section 1: Regular Meetings

219 Regular meeting times and places will be publicly announced at least 72 hours-prior to the scheduled meeting date.

220 Section 2: Special Meetings

- 221 A. The President may convene special meetings of the SA to consider issues of immediate and pressing concern.
222 The President will also call a special meeting after being instructed to do so by six of the voting members of 223 the SA.
224 B. Conflicts- If there is a major conflict that affects a significant portion of the undergraduate student body, 225 such as a religious conflict, any member may direct the SA president to call a special meeting in lieu of the 226 regularly scheduled meeting. The request must be made 2 weeks in advance of the regularly scheduled 227 meeting at issue.

228 Section 3: Organizational Meeting

Cornell University

Student Assembly

229 The first meeting of the academic year shall be known as the Organizational Meeting and shall be for the purpose of 230 adopting the schedule for regular meetings and approving the standing rules.

231 Section 4: Informal meetings

232 The SA shall hold an informal meeting as events warrant at the discretion of the Executive Board. This meeting will 233 be reserved for informal discussions between SA members and other interested parties, to set goals and priorities for 234 the upcoming weeks. No legislation can be decided upon during these informal sessions. The attendance policy will 235 remain in effect during the meeting.

236 Section 5: Executive Session

237 With the concurrence of two-thirds of the voting members in attendance, the SA or any of its committees may go into 238 executive session during a regularly scheduled meeting only to discuss confidential matters as defined by this Charter.
239 No policy determinations will be made in executive session. The Student Assembly may also hold executive sessions 240 for internal elections and planning purposes. Executive session shall be closed to non-voting, non-executive members 241 of the assembly. Community members may be invited by the assembly to participate in an executive session. Secret 242 ballot votes shall be reserved for executive sessions.

243 Section 6: Quorum

244 A quorum shall consist of a majority of the voting members of the SA.

245 Section 7: Community Votes

- 246 A. Should there only be one undergraduate ex-officio non-elected member in attendance, he or she will only be 247 allocated one vote.
- 248 B. The community clause may only be exercised on final votes of sense-of-body resolutions, which excludes (1)
249 funding and budgetary decisions, (2) amendments to the SA Charter and Standing Rules, (3) the ability to 250 make motions, (4) creation/dissolution of committees (5) selection of officers, committee members, and 251 liaisons from the popularly elected SA (i.e. allocation of the Student Activity Fee, approval of Parliamentarian, 252 Liaison to the Provost, etc.).
- 253 C. Prior to the final vote of a resolution, qualifying undergraduate members of the community will be permitted 254 to cast their vote. The President will announce to the Assembly the collective vote of the gallery and liaisons 255 prior to the casting of popularly elected members' votes on any given sense-of-the-body resolution. Both 256 community votes will be allocated to the side that has a simple majority.
- 257 D. All community votes shall be submitted through a Qualtrics survey to which a Cornell University Web 258 Authorization Portal has been applied. The link to this survey will be made easily accessible on the Student 259 Assembly website. The relevant deliberations that occur during the assembly meeting shall be live-streamed 260 on the same page. The page must also feature a link to the text of the legislation being voted upon. The

Cornell University Student Assembly

261 voting shall commence at the beginning of the Student Assembly meeting at which the final vote is 262 conducted. The voting shall end at the commencement of voting for assembly members, at which point the 263 tally of community votes will be announced to the Student Assembly. It will be the responsibility of the 264 Parliamentarian to work in tandem with the Office of the Assemblies in order to execute all tasks except 265 those relevant to the live stream, which shall be the responsibility of the Student Assembly Clerk..

266 Section 8: Regularly Scheduled Meetings for Purposes of the Student Assembly 267 Attendance Policy

- 268 A. Attendance at all organizational and specially scheduled meetings is required, when the Executive Committee 269 provides SA members at least 72-hours prior notice of the meeting.
270 B. Any member who fails to attend a required meeting or event shall be considered absent. Any late arrival or 271 early departure from a required meeting will result in a half-absence. This includes Executive Sessions.

272 ARTICLE V: EXECUTIVE BOARD

273 Section 1: Composition

274 The Executive Board shall be composed of the officers of the SA. The Executive Archivist, the Director of Elections 275 and the Parliamentarian serve as non-voting members of the Executive Board.

276 Section 2: Duties

277 The Executive Board of the SA shall coordinate the actions of the SA to ensure its smooth operation, set the agenda 278 for the Regular Meetings of the SA and inform all relevant parties of Executive Cabinet decisions. Additionally, the 279 board shall send its minutes to all representatives within 24 hours of its meeting.

280 Section 3: Meetings

281 The Executive Board shall hold meetings at least once a week during the academic year. Special meetings of the Board 282 may be called by the Executive Vice President and shall be called upon the written request of four members of the 283 board.

284 ARTICLE VI: COMMITTEES

285 Section 1: Creation and Maintenance of Committees

Cornell University

Student Assembly

- 286 A. Committees will be established with the adoption of a committee charge to be included in these bylaws. A 287 committee's charge must be adopted and placed in these Bylaws before its bylaws are to be considered.
288 Committee bylaws shall be adopted with a majority vote.
- 289 B. Any member of any SA committee or commission (except for the Appropriations committee, Executive 290 Committee, and Elections committee) who will be an undergraduate for the entirety of the following SA term 291 and who requests to maintain their membership during the transition from one SA term to the next may do 292 so at the discretion of the committee's outgoing chair. The chair of the committee or commission will 293 transmit the names of any returning members or commissioners to both the outgoing and newly elected Vice 294 Presidents of Internal Operations by the last day of classes in May. The Vice President of Internal Operations 295 will ensure that all returning committee or commission members are staffed and included on the appropriate 296 listserv once the new SA term begins on June 1st and will inform each chair of any returning members or 297 commissioners.
- 298 C. For the purposes of communication and collaboration, the President and all Vice Presidents of the Student
299 Assembly will serve as ex-officio non-voting members of all Student Assembly committees and commissions 300 on which they do not serve as voting members. This policy does not apply to the Appropriations Committee, 301 Infrastructure Fund Commission, and Elections Committee.

302 Section 2: Review Committees

- 303 D. Review Committees shall review all policies, programs, and actions and shall aid in the budget/program 304 planning process of sectors of the University that create policy directly affecting student life.
- 305 E. The Vice President for Student and Campus Life shall appoint a staff member to work with the chairperson 306 of certain review committee to assure proper functioning of the committee.
- 307 F. Undergraduate members of the review committees will be designated by the appropriate constituency bodies 308 and by application. All non-Student Assembly members will be subject to the approval of the SA.
- 309 G. Review committees will discuss program assessment/planning documents with the SA during the fall 310 semester as part of the committee's responsibility for the areas under their jurisdiction.
- 311 H. Review committees will be convened in the beginning of the fall semester by the VP Internal Operations.
- 312 I. Furthermore, the Student Assembly review committees reserve, can, and should exercise at their discretion 313 legislative authority over residential life policies of the University (i.e. the Department of Campus Life and the 314 Office of the Dean of Students). When exercising this authority, review committees are recommended to 315 consult the Residential Student Congress of Cornell.
- 316 J. Committee on Dining Services – The Committee on Dining Services will work to represent student 317 interests in the Cornell food system. The committee will consist of at least one faculty member, two Dining 318 student workers and/or Dining Student Sustainability Coordinators, two voting SA members, one 319 graduate/professional student, and at least ten additional students. The VP of Internal Operations for the 320 Student Assembly will recommend additional students to both the committee Chair and the Executive 321 Cabinet for their approval. Additionally, the Director of Dining (or a designee) and the Budget Director of 322 Dining shall serve ex-officio. The Chair, who does not have to be a SA member, will work with the Director 323 to select relevant administrators and staff to be present at meetings. Members will collectively review the

Cornell University Student Assembly

- 324 policies and initiatives of Dining Services, and make recommendations to Student Assembly and Dining 325 Services leadership for improving existing policies or integrating new ideas.
- 326 K. Student Health Advisory Committee: The committee will work in conjunction with Cornell Health to 327 examine healthcare policies improve student health, wellness, and safety, and act as a form of open

368 shall therefore facilitate the full expression of the SA's responsibilities to the Cornell student body.
- 369 B. Operational committees shall be convened in the beginning of the fall semester, or when the committee's 370 function prescribes, by the Committee on Committee Structure (or its successor body) in coordination with 371 interested SA voting members.
- 372 C. Appropriations Committee – The Appropriations Committee of the SA is the financial branch of the SA. It 373 reviews all requests for SA funding as well as the policies and guidelines regarding the Student Activity Fee 374 and those organizations, which receive funding from it. The Committee shall consist of 8 voting members of 375 the SA, to be selected by the Assembly at large during their organizational meetings; the VP Finance, who 376 shall serve as Chair; and 7 undergraduates at-large to be selected by the Executive Cabinet. The Director of 377 the Office of the Assemblies or their designee shall serve as an ex-officio non-voting member. No SAFC 378 Commissioners shall serve as voting members of the Committee. Quorum shall be defined as a simple 379 majority of all voting members. A designee of the chair shall take minutes at all meetings.
- 380 D. Student Assembly Infrastructure Fund Commission – The SAIF Commission (SAIFC) of the SA is 381 responsible for evaluating applications for funding through the SAIF. The rules governing the operation of 382 the SAIFC are contained in Appendix C of the SA Charter. The Commission shall consist of at least 12 and 383 no more than 17 commissioners. The commissioners must include five voting members of the SA, consisting 384 of a Chair, who will be the Vice President of Infrastructure of the SA, three Assembly members elected 385 during the Assembly's Spring organizational meetings, and one New Student voting member of the SA, 386 internally elected by the Assembly following the Fall election. The remaining commissioners will consist of at 387 least seven and no more than twelve undergraduate students who are either returning commissioners or are 388 selected from a pool of applicants and approved by the Executive Cabinet, with the exact number of 389 commissioners to be set at the discretion of the Chair of the Commission and the Staffing Committee of the 390 SA. No SAFC Commissioners shall serve as voting members of the SAIFC (with the exception of the Vice 391 President for Finance). No more than 2 of the voting Student Assembly members on the SAIFC may also be 392 voting members of the Appropriations Committee and no more than 4 of the total voting members on the 393 committee may be voting members of the Appropriations Committee. Quorum shall be defined as a simple 394 majority of all staffed voting members. Upon request, a written summary of the meeting will be provided by 395 the chair. The Vice President for Finance and Vice President of External Affairs shall serve ex-officio as 396 non-voting members of the Commission. The Director of the Office of the Assemblies or their designee shall 397 serve as an ex-officio non-voting member.
- 398 E. Communications and Outreach Committee – The Communications and Outreach Committee helps to 399 bridge the disconnect between campus and the Student Assembly. The Assembly strives to foster 400 collaborative student activities, as well as inform the student body about the Student Assembly initiatives, 401 meetings, and resolutions. The committee will ensure a direct and ever present link between students active in

Cornell University Student Assembly

- 402 campus government, the administration, and students at-large and will relay student interest to the SA. The 403 committee will assist in furthering the outreach efforts of the assembly by aiding in the coordination of SA-404 sponsored events including, but not limited to conducting polls, referenda, community outreach forums, 405 designated constituency events, and hearings. The committee will also assist in coordinating efforts and 406 devising strategies to involve more non-voting members in the decisions and events of the SA. The Assembly 407 plans recreational events for students. The SA Vice President of External Affairs will serve as Chair of the 408 Committee.
- 409 F. Elections Committee – The committee will coordinate and implement regularly scheduled and special 410 elections of the SA and directly elected undergraduate representatives to the UA. The SA Director of 411 Elections shall serve as chair with a vote only in the event of a tie. The committee consists of ten voting 412 members, of whom less than half may also be members of the SA. At one of the first two SA meetings of 413 each academic year, the Executive Cabinet will present a slate of proposed members to the SA for 414 confirmation, which the SA must approve or disapprove in its entirety. The Executive Cabinet may fill any 415 subsequent vacancies without confirmation by the SA. No person may be a candidate in an election 416 supervised by the committee in the same academic year when the person served as a voting member of the 417 committee. All committee meetings will be closed. Only voting members will be permitted to attend the 418 meetings unless specifically invited by the Director of Elections. This committee will be chaired by the 419 Director of Elections of the Student Assembly.
- 420 G. Executive Cabinet – The committee shall staff any vacant committee positions the Student Assembly (SA)
421 is empowered to staff during meetings in early fall. The committee shall re-evaluate the committee application 422 outreach plan at the end of every spring term. The committee shall also evaluate SA committees' end of the 423 year report and determine if the SA committee and/or their composition need to be changed. The committee 424 shall be charged with creating and enforcing an attendance policy for all committees. The membership of this 425 committee shall include the SA's President, Executive Vice President, Vice President for Finance, Vice 426 President of External Affairs, Vice President of Internal Operations, Vice President of Diversity and 427 Inclusion, and all SA committee chairs. Ex-officio membership shall be granted to the Director of the Office 428 of Assemblies. The VP Internal of Operations shall serve as chair. The VP of Internal Operations shall be 429 responsible for consulting with chairpersons of committees and recommending candidates for vacant 430 committee positions to the Executive Cabinet. The Executive Cabinet shall assume the duties and 431 responsibilities of the Student Assembly Staffing Committee, as referred to in other documents.
- 432 H. Research & Accountability Committee – The committee will pursue any necessary accountability and 433 research concerns of SA members and directly elected undergraduate representatives to the UA. Research and 434 accountability concerns consist of, but are not limited to: general body attendance, resolution voting, liaison 435 role accountability, committee attendance, committee conduct, and general representative accountability. The 436 committee will also evaluate all requests submitted by community members that are against any SA member, 437 SA committees, or directly elected undergraduate representatives to the UA. The Chair position can be held 438 by any non-Student Assembly member of the Cornell undergraduate student population and the committee
439 will be under the supervision of Executive Vice President. The committee shall consist of ten voting 440 members, two of which are current SA members and/or directly elected undergraduate representatives to the 441 UA and eight undergraduate community members. The chair shall only vote in the event of a tie. The

Cornell University

Student Assembly

442 composition of the committee can change for specific meeting types in which members of the SA Executive 443 Committee or other student representatives can be given an ex-officio status – this is to be voted on by the 444 RE committee as a whole and only when initially decided on by the Chair. The committee has the obligation, 445 if decided upon, to conference any SA member, directly elected undergraduate representative to the UA, SA
446 affiliated committees, or Committee Chair if they have received a notice from any member of the Cornell 447 Community. The committee is restricted from passing resolutions due to the necessary impartial nature of the 448 committee. However, after a full inquiry or fact finding action – a written report may be presented to the SA, 449 which will include a brief summary of the situation being investigated and any necessary actions the 450 committee recommends. The requester’s name and others who are not SA members or directly elected 451 undergraduate representatives to the UA shall be redacted from the report if permission from any of the 452 individual(s) is not given. Adoption of the (possible) recommendation(s) requires a three quarters majority 453 vote of SA voting members. Rejection of the (possible) recommendation(s) require three quarters of SA 454 voting members. If recommendation or report are not approved or rejected, it will be tabled indefinitely. The 455 committee chair shall present reports to the SA at both the requestor(s), RA Committee’s, and Chair’s 456 discretion

457 Section 4: Diversity

- 458 A. Diversity and Inclusion Committee – The committee shall serve as the body through which the SA, the 459 diversity councils of the undergraduate schools and colleges, the Office of Academic Diversity Initiatives 460 (OADI), and the Center for Intercultural Dialogue coordinate their efforts to promote awareness and 461 understanding of the increasing importance of diversity and create an environment that brings together 462 diverse perspectives and fosters diversity of thought. The charge of the Diversity and Inclusion committee 463 will be to:
- 464 a. To be a meeting grounds for interested students to meet members of the administration to 465 brainstorm, formulate and lead implementable policies in the field of diversity and inclusion.
 - 466 b. To review the efforts of the Diversity Committee and diversity councils of the colleges.
 - 467 c. To provide a brief report of its progress to be presented by the Vice President of Diversity & 468 Inclusion to the SA General Body by the final meeting in the fall semester, as well as a full report to 469 include (but not limited to) the goals of the academic year, the strategies devised for achievement of 470 these goals, the progress of UDC initiatives, college- specific initiatives, obstacles, and potential goals 471 for the next academic year to be presented in the same manner at the final meeting of the spring 472 semester.
 - 473 d. Composition
 - 474 i. The Diversity and Inclusion Committee will aim to be a collective voice of the diversity of 475 backgrounds, cultures, ethnicities, gender identities, races, religions, and sexual orientations 476 represented at Cornell.
 - 477 ii. Non-SA student representation: student members of the committee may be recruited from 478 institutions and organizations such as the diversity councils of the colleges, Women’s 479 Resource Center, Center for Intercultural Dialogue, ALANA, Haven Executive board,

Cornell University

Student Assembly

- 480 Cornell Outdoor Education, International Student Union and any member of the Cornell 481 student body who is interested in diversity initiatives.
- 482 iii. Student Assembly representation: SA LGBT Liaison at-large, Women’s representative,

584 ARTICLE VII: COMMUNITY RIGHTS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

585 Section 1: Community Rights

586 The SA and its committees shall respect and protect the rights of individual members of the Cornell community. All 587 members of the community, who do not otherwise have an appointed or elected position on the student assembly, 588 have the right to add a resolution to the Student Assembly Agenda as a sponsor (without the requirement of having a 589 member of the assembly being a sponsor) after gaining the approval of a Student Assembly committee through a 590 majority vote or after procuring the written signature of at least a majority of seated SA members and presenting it to 591 the SA President or their designee for verification at least 48 hours before the meeting at which the resolution is to be 592 introduced. Resolutions that appear on the agenda using either of these methods may not have more than 3 sponsors 593 who are not Student Assembly members of Student Assembly committee chairs.

Cornell University Student Assembly

594 Section 2: Confidentiality

595 When a subject under discussion or examination requires the use of personal confidential information, all reasonable 596 efforts shall be made to safeguard the confidentiality of this information. Confidential information is meant to include 597 any and all information that, if publicly exposed, would endanger the privacy, safety, or security of any member of the 598 Cornell community (students, faculty, and staff), or constitute a breach of any individual right guaranteed by the 599 University, the State of New York, or the federal government.

600 Section 3: Infringement of Confidentiality

601 If any member or group of the University feels that any action of the SA or its committees is infringing upon that 602 person's or that group's rights under this Article, then that person or group may appeal to the Judicial Codes
603 Counselor (JCC) to determine whether probable grounds exist for a complaint. By majority vote, the SA may suspend 604 any actions related to an appeal to the JCC until the JCC makes a final ruling on the appeal.

605 ARTICLE VIII: PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

606 Section 1: Public Events and Campus Forums

607 The SA shall conduct at least one public event or forum per semester at alternating locations on campus. These 608 public events or forums shall include administrators related to a particular topic of current student interest.

609 ARTICLE IX: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

610 The rules contained in the current edition of Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the SA in all cases to 611 which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Charter, Bylaws, Standing Rules, and any 612 special rules of order the SA may adopt.

613 ARTICLE X: AMENDMENTS

614 These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting of the assembly by a two-thirds vote of the members present, 615 provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting. Amendments may be 616 presented to the assembly by voting members and by community petition with at least 100 Cornell undergraduate 617 student signatures.
