

Bylaws

Cornell University Assembly

As amended on April 25, 2023

ARTICLE I: EX-OFFICIO MEMBERSHIP

The following serve as members of the Assembly ex-officio without vote:

1. the chair of each associated committee of the Assembly.

ARTICLE II: PROCEDURES

Section 2.1: Meetings

At the first meeting of the academic year, the Assembly shall adopt a schedule of meetings for the remainder of the year. These meetings shall be referred to as the regular meetings.

Section 2.2: Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Assembly may be convened to consider issues of immediate and pressing concern. The Chair of the Assembly, the President or in the President's absence, the Acting President, may call a special meeting of the Assembly. The Chair shall call a special meeting of the Assembly when requested to do so by two-thirds of its seated members.

Section 2.3: Quorum

A majority of the seated members of the Assembly constitute a quorum to do business.

Section 2.4: Robert's Rules of Order

The procedures for debate and general conduct of business of the Assembly in all matters not specifically described in this document are Roberts Rules of Order, latest edition.

Section 2.5: Executive Session

With the concurrence of a majority of the voting members present, the Assembly or any of its committees may enter executive session to discuss confidential matters. The Assembly must enter into its minutes the purpose of an executive session. No policy decisions shall be made in executive session.

Section 2.6: Speaking Privileges

Any member of the Cornell community may request speaking privileges through the Chair, provided the 41 request is made at least 24 hours prior to a meeting. Consultants invited to a meeting by the Chair may

42 speak regarding the particular topic on which they were invited to present information or answer
43 questions. During the course of the meeting the Assembly may establish additional procedures for 44 granting speaking privileges.
45

46 Section 2.7: Agenda

47
48 The President of the University or any member of the Assembly may ask the Executive Vice Chair to 49 place an item of business on the agenda. The Executive Board should place the item at the earliest 50 possible time that is practical or refer the item to appropriate committees for further review. The 51 Executive Vice Chair must make the agenda of the Assembly available to members no less than twenty-
52 four hours prior to a meeting of the Assembly.
53

54 Except where explicitly stated by the Executive Board, agendas and associated documents are 55 presumed to be public documents that may be shared with the campus community.
56

57 Section 2.8: Minutes

58
59 The minutes of Assembly meetings and those of its committees shall be available to all members of the 60 University, except for those meetings, or portions thereof, conducted in executive session.
61

62 Section 2.9: Annual Report

63
64 The Chair of the Assembly, in consultation with its members, presents an annual report to the 65 President of the University. The report includes a summary of the Assembly's work during the year and 66 describes any outstanding issues or items of business that are expected to arise in the future. The 67 Assembly must make the report available to all members of the University.
68

69 Section 2.10: Timing of Regular Meetings and Notice of All Meeting 70 Times and Locations

71
72 Regular meetings shall occur during the academic year only. The Executive Board must publicize and 73 allow the campus community to attend and observe all open meetings of the Assembly.
74

75 Section 2.11: Attendance Policy for Elected Members Not Yet Seated

76
77 Newly selected members of the Assembly must make every effort to attend any meetings that occur
78 before such members are seated.
79

80 Section 2.12: Attendance Policy for Seated Members

81
82 Seated and ex-officio members must attend all regular meetings of the Assembly. Members must:

- 83 A. notify the Chair of the Assembly at least twenty-four hours prior to any scheduled meeting they 84 are unable to attend, if possible; and,

85 B. not miss more than two regular meetings in any session of the Assembly.

86

87 If the Chair determines a member has failed to meet any of these requirements, the Chair must call for 88 a vote on unseating the member at the next regular meeting. If the Assembly votes to unseat the 89 member, the unseated member has not vacated the seat, but does not count for quorum and cannot 90 vote until they have been reseated. As soon as possible after a member has been unseated, the Chair
91 must notify the member and their constituent assembly that they have been unseated.

93 If an unseated member of the Assembly desires to be reseated, the member may call for a simple
94 majority vote of the Assembly to be reseated. The motion may not be postponed until after an agenda
95 item requiring a vote without the unseated member's consent. If the Assembly votes to reseat the 96 member, the member is reseated immediately with all rights restored.

97

98 Section 2.13: Reporting Responsibilities of Members of the Assembly

99

100 Presiding officers of each constituent assembly serve as liaisons between the Assembly and their 101 respective constituent assemblies, reporting the activities of the Assembly to their constituent 102 assemblies and the activities of their constituent assemblies to the Assembly.

103

104 Section 2.14: Sense-of-the-Community Referendum

105

106 The Assembly may call for a Sense-of-the-Community Referendum provided that it:

107

A. can be completed in the current session; and,

108

B. addresses a concern relevant to the entire University community in which all employees,
109 faculty, and students may vote.

110

111 ARTICLE III: COMMITTEES

112

112 Section 3.1: Ad hoc Committees

113

114 The Assembly, the Executive Board, and the Assembly's standing committees may establish such ad
115 hoc committees or subcommittees as are necessary for the proper performance of their functions. Any 116 alteration to the charge of such committees and subcommittees or to their membership must be
117 reported to the Vice Chair for Operations before being put into effect.

118

119 Sub-Section 3.1.1: Composition and Terms

120

121 A. The standing committee may recommend a specific prescription as to the membership 122 of an ad hoc subcommittee, including provisions for the appointment of members who 123 are not members of the standing committee or the Assembly.

124

B. No ad hoc committee may have fewer than three voting members. Each ad hoc 125 committee must disband at the end of a session of the Assembly.

Except where otherwise provided, the Vice Chair for Operations, in consultation with the Executive Board, may appoint members. The Executive Board may remove members. A standing committee may appoint members to or remove members from the subcommittees it establishes at its own discretion.

Section 3.2: Standing Committees

Sub-Section 3.2.1: Standing Committee Responsibilities

Each standing committee must:

- A. hold and publicize at least one meeting per semester that is open to the campus community where it receives and discusses items of business relevant to its charge;
- B. submit, in a timely fashion, minutes of each meeting to the Vice Chair for Operations;
- C. submit, before May 1, an annual report to the Vice Chair for Operations including a summary of unfinished business of the committee;
- D. make every reasonable attempt to ensure that members of the University community affected by its recommendations are informed of the agenda of its meetings and of its recommendations;
- E. request that the Chair of the Assembly place on the agenda of the Assembly those matters, which in its opinion require discussion by the Assembly; and,
- F. respond to any requests from the Assembly for information or reconsideration of recommendations.

Sub-Section 3.2.2: Standing committee composition and terms

Unless otherwise specified in its charge, each committee will consist of eleven voting members:

- A. three appointed by and from the voting membership of the Assembly;
- B. one appointed by each constituent assembly from its voting membership; and,
- C. one appointed by each constituent assembly from the constituency it represents.

The officers of the assembly serve as non-voting, ex-officio members of the standing committees.

Sub-Section 3.2.3: Appointment and removal of standing committee members and chairs

- A. The Vice Chair for Operations, in consultation with the Executive Board, may appoint members on behalf of the voting membership of the Assembly. The Executive Board may remove members.
- B. Except for compelling circumstances, no person should serve more than two consecutive terms in a given committee.

Section 3.3: Procedures for policy development and legislative actions

The responsibilities articulated in this section apply only to committee business related to the Assembly's authority in policy development or legislative actions.

Sub-Section 3.3.1: Mandatory Procedures

Each committee must:

- A. issue a public notice on the Assembly's website of each motion related to a substantive policy change, which includes:
 - a. a contact to whom inquiries and written comments may be directed,
 - b. period of time during which written comments will be accepted, and,
 - c. times and locations of any public hearings, if hearings are conducted; and,
- B. issue a report based on its deliberations and any comments received, which the Assembly will incorporate as supporting documentation into any related motion is subsequently adopts.

Sub-Section 3.3.2: Standard Procedure

To the extent practical and appropriate, each committee must solicit written comments from campus constituencies for a public comment period of at least two weeks in duration.

Sub-Section 3.3.3: Discretionary Procedures

Each committee may:

- A. request reports and information from responsible administrative units;
- B. extend, with public notice, the period of time when written comments are accepted; and,
- C. conduct public hearings, in collaboration with responsible administrative units, to receive oral comments from community members and experts.

ARTICLE IV: CHARGES OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 4.1: Campus Codes Committee

By delegation from the Assembly, the Committee will review any proposed motion related to:

- The Student Code of Conduct; and
- Solicitation of applications from interested faculty, students and staff for service on the University Hearing and Review Boards as specified in section "II C" of the Cornell Student Code of Conduct Procedures; and
- Issues involving academic freedom and freedom of speech for all members of the Cornell University community, including faculty, students, and staff on the Ithaca campus and those located outside the United States.

215 The Committee may propose, review, and amend resolutions as it deems appropriate. The Committee
216 must approve resolutions referred for its consideration before they can be advanced to the Assembly
217 for a vote and for debate.
218

219 Section 4.1: Campus Welfare Committee

220
221 By delegation from the Assembly, the Committee will review any proposed motion related to:

- 222 ▪ diversity and inclusion;
- 223 ▪ family support;
- 224 ▪ health services; and,
- 225 ▪ any other topic deemed relevant to campus welfare by the Executive Board.

226
227 The Committee may propose, review, and amend resolutions as it deems appropriate. The Committee
228 must approve resolutions referred for its consideration before they can be advanced to the Assembly
229 for a vote and for debate.
230

231 Section 4.1: Campus Committee on Infrastructure, Technology, and the 232 Environment

233
234 By delegation from the Assembly, the Committee will review and approve any proposed motion related 235 to:

- 236 ▪ environmental impact and sustainability;
- 237 ▪ information technology;
- 238 ▪ transportation and commuter policies; and,
- 239 ▪ any other topic deemed relevant to campus infrastructure by the Executive Board.

240
241 The Committee may propose, review, and amend resolutions as it deems appropriate. The Committee
242 must approve resolutions referred for its consideration before they can be advanced to the Assembly
243 for a vote and for debate.

- nine additional at-large members, and ex-officio members.
- B. The presidential appointments are made by the President of the University, and those individuals are to serve three-year terms on a staggered basis.
- C. The position appointments or designees should be individuals with professional and technical expertise in a design or planning related field. These positions consist of the chairs of the following departments or their designees: Department of Architecture, Department of Natural Resources, Department of Landscape Architecture, Department of City and Regional Planning, and the Art Department as well as the directors of the following units or their designees: the Cornell Botanic Gardens, Graduate Program in Historic Preservation, and the Vice President for Facilities Services.
- D. The nine at large members consist of one University Assembly liaison, two graduate/professional students, two undergraduate students, two employees, and two faculty members, each named by his or her respective Assembly for a two-year term.
- E. The ex-officio members are added by virtue of their administrative positions at the University and their connection to planning at the University.

Section 5.3: Transportation Hearing and Appeals Board

The Transportation Hearing and Appeals Board (THAB) shall review decisions that have been denied in whole or in part by Transportation and Mail Services administrative staff on matters relating to violation appeals, requests for special parking grants for those claiming financial hardship, and exceptions to parking rules and regulations and/or normal permit eligibility criteria.

Sub-Section 5.3.1: Responsibilities

Violation appeals must each be decisioned separately, considering all relevant facts and circumstances brought to the board’s attention. The board shall only review cases for which it is deemed an error in judgment or procedure was made in the original decision. In cases of requests for special parking grants based on financial hardship, appellants must fully explain why they are unable to use the transportation options available. In cases of requests related to exceptions to parking rules and regulations and/or normal permit eligibility criteria, the board’s decision shall be based on demonstrated need and are subject to space and other limitations.

Sub-Section 5.3.2: Composition

THAB shall consist of twelve members nominated by their respective Assemblies and approved by those bodies and one ex-officio member representing the administrative staff of Transportation and Mail Services. Members shall be constituted as follows: four students (two graduate/professional, two undergraduate), four faculty, and four employees. No employee of Transportation and Mail Services or Cornell Police may serve on THAB. The term of membership shall be two years, except that initially, so that terms may be staggered, two faculty, two students and two employees shall serve terms of one year. THAB shall annually elect its own chairperson. Hearings shall require a quorum of three members. In case of a tie vote, the decision shall be recorded in favor of the appellant.

345

ARTICLE VI: LIAISONS TO OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

346

Section 6.1: Liaisons

347

348

At its annual organizational meeting, as soon as is practical thereafter, or whenever a vacancy arises, the Assembly will appoint a liaison, or liaisons, as appropriate to serve as its representative on the following bodies:

349

351

- Policy Advisory Group
- Council on Sexual Violence Prevention
- Student Insurance Advisory Committee Liaison
- Student Health Fee Advisory Committee Liaison
